

The Symbolic Heart of Canada

←  Supreme Court of Canada
 Early May to the end of August: on a continuous basis.
 September to April: by appointment only.
 See the advertisement on the back cover.

 Washrooms
 (universal access)

 Must See
 Have only 30 minutes to discover Parliament Hill? We suggest visiting these five essential stops.

 Photo Ops
 The Hill is filled with great places to take photographs. These are some of the best.

Proposed Tour Route

- | | | | |
|--|---|---|---|
| 1. Queen Victoria p. 4 | 8. Police and Peace
Officers' Memorial p. 10 | 14. Robert Baldwin and Sir Louis-
Hippolyte Lafontaine p. 16 | 20. The East Block and
West Block p. 22 |
| 2. Lester B. Pearson p. 6 | 9. The Summer Pavilion p. 11 | 15. Queen Elizabeth II p. 17 | 21. The Centennial Flame p. 23 |
| 3. Cat Sanctuary p. 7 | 10. Sir Robert Borden p. 12 | 16. Women Are Persons! p. 18 | 22. The Centre Block and the Peace Tower p. 25 |
| 4. Sir George-Étienne Cartier p. 7 | 11. The Victoria Bell p. 13 | 17. Sir John A. Macdonald p. 19 | |
| 5. Alexander Mackenzie p. 8 | 12. Thomas D'Arcy McGee p. 13 | 18. William Lyon Mackenzie King p. 20 | |
| 6. George Brown p. 9 | 13. The Library of Parliament p. 14 | 19. Sir Wilfrid Laurier p. 21 | |
| 7. John G. Diefenbaker p. 9 | | | |

PHOTO CREDIT: (COVER) SARAH O'NEILL
 ALL PHOTOS USED IN THE BOOKLET ARE THE PROPERTY OF THE NCC, UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED.

Feel free to wander at your leisure. The numbers identify the many statues and points of interest found on the Hill. Enjoy!